Where is America Headed?

Where is our country headed? Is America still the land of opportunity? Well, first, if you want to know where we are headed, you need to know something about our leader/leaders! After a long campaign and two and a half years as president here is what we know about Obama. NOTHING!

1. We are not sure where he comes from!
2. Where did Obama get the money for his education?
3. I feel that the way Obama thinks is because he was not raised in this country and he was not raised with American beliefs, so American belief is the enemy.
4. We know Obama has never run a business and has never had to meet payroll and still has not experienced it while trying to run our country.
5. Obama has that Robin Hood Syndrome. Take from the rich and give to the poor. I guess that could work until there are no more rich.
6. Obama has never had military experience but he is in charge of the largest army in the world.
7. After two and a half years and trillions of dollars spent by him, he is still blaming Bush.
8. He has been apologizing abroad for America's past deeds. If America had not done what was done in the past, Obama would not be running a free country. But don't worry about that, he will fix it. We will not be free long if we continue on his path.

9. The HealthCare system is all about control, Government Control!

10. Why have our past presidents not allowed oil drilling? It's because the oil countries are getting rich and we are trying to be friends with them, especially the Saudis.

11. The Democrats are starting to drop along the wayside, they are having more and more trouble believing Obama because of his lack of leadership and lack of experience. Also when they take a break and go home they find the people in their state are not happy with them.

12. When the Dems were in control they gloatingly passed legislation against the will of the people. Now that the Republicans have the majority, they are kicking and screaming about what Republicans want to do, CUT SPENDING - especially when they attack some of those special earmarks given to certain states.

13. Where did Obama get his campaign money? Where did those small international contributions come from?

14. Why is Obama's history filled with Anti-American people and Anti-American views.

15. Why does big media give him favorable Press? The stations that are not report

MONEY MATTERS

Most folks don't plan to fail; they just fail to PLAN!

Every seven seconds a Baby Boomer turns 60! Within the foreseeable future (the next twenty years), 78 million boomers will begin a ten-year transition phase which includes five years prior to retirement and five years after retirement. This is the age period of Boomers turning 55-65 years of age.

The investment industry theorized, and much research now confirms, that Boomers will contemplate, enter and pursue a retirement much different from their parents retirements. Most will consider leaving their present positions to do something new and likely somewhat more entrepreneurial.

They will retire TO something rather than FROM something!

Research indicates these Boomers are concerned about preserving whatever nest egg they have accumulated so as to enable them to pursue newer, and often unproven, pathways. Though safety of principal will be a primary concern, they will generally be less risk averse than their parents, and will have a long history of having invested more aggressively throughout their lives, primarily through their 401 (k) Plans and Stock Option Plans.

Most Boomers are painfully aware of shortfalls predicted within the US Social Security system, and often do not feel that Social Security will benefit them to any measurable degree, if at all. Many are prepared to engage in financially productive endeavors well past what has long been considered the retirement age of 65.

Since medical science is likely to prolong life expectancy, the Boomers also recognize that they are likely to live well into their 90's or beyond. Recent research has determined that the average cost for medical insurance and out-of-pocket medical expenses will exceed $215,000 per couple! (My personal estimate is a higher number!)

Many Boomers have matured experiencing a life-style much closer to luxury than to poverty. Boomers have grown up with credit cards and have often abused them in order to provide what they consider necessities items and experiences that their parents considered luxuries! Often such necessities/luxuries take the form of travel to exotic or adventurous places, golf with its inherent Country Club membership and atmosphere, cruises and expensive personal items such as boats, cars and yes, even airplanes. These life-style parameters are not likely to change.

Today's Boomers are also part of the fitness revolution that has engulfed our nation in the past thirty years, so they are healthier than their parents were at the age of 60-65. They are not contemplating a retirement filled with multiple doctor appointments and surgeries, but rather one filled with energy and excitement. This often translates into significant expenditures for trips and toys such as boats, sporting equipment and adventure tours. Think river rafting trips and hiking in Nepal with the latest feather-weight backpack!

Most Boomers are more highly educated than their parents, many with multiple graduate degrees. They have educated their offspring in similar fashion and to sometimes even higher levels. As highly educated, and often professional people, Boomers are frequently experts in their own fields and as such, recognize the expertise of others. Hence, they are accustomed to paying for expert advice and professional services. Boomers have also had a lifetime of one-stop shopping, much of it while on the go with their latest hi-tech device. Keeping up with the latest technology is also costly as yesterday's 3G phone gives way to tomorrow's 4G version.

The extended family so prevalent in the past few decades has sometimes added to the Boomer's financial burdens, but as products of the ME generation, Boomers have been focused more on their own needs and pleasures than those of others. Only the enormously wealthy are highly concerned with providing for future generations especially if doing so would detract from their own retirement life-style. Add to this that parents of Boomers have generally taken the opposite view, enabling present day Boomers to inherit some 12 trillion dollars in wealth transfer between now and 2020.

All of this adds up to a new view of both retirement life-style and retirement planning. Is there a Boomer in your world? If not, there soon will be several living on your street! If YOU are Boomer just entering retirement, be sure to check with a competent Financial Advisor who can help steer your retirement ship into and through what could be choppy seas ahead. Bon Voyage!

Aircraft crash lands at Ocala International Airport

Aircraft crash lands at Ocala International Airport

(OCALA, FL) April 21, 2011 The pilot of an aircraft told fire officials the plane lost electrical power, before making an emergency landing at the Ocala International Airport this morning. The pilot, Bill Evans, told authorities that the landing gear collapsed on touchdown. He was flying the 1992 Beechcraft Bonanza plane from Bradenton Florida to West Virginia when the loss of electrical power occurred. Fortunately he was not injured. Ocala Fire Rescue responded with several pieces of emergency apparatus including the Airport Rescue Firefighting (A.R.F.F.) truck. The control tower at the airport notified firefighters of an aircraft in trouble at 10:29 a.m., and they arrived on scene within three minutes. Runway 36 E was temporarily closed and the Federal Aviation Administration (F.A.A.) was notified. Firefighters remained on scene for almost three hours.

PUBLISHER'S NOTES

As I understand we have had some phone calls praising our School Board Transportation going private story. It was not just a story, it gave facts about places to go on the internet to get the result of a study done by an independant firm that shows it fails. It is more money, cost jobs and the children's safety is not being overseen by the School System all the time they would just monitor it. Technically a child is part of the school system from the time they leave home to go to school. I can smell lawsuit all over this transportation thing.

I received several calls from a resident of the Villages telling me how refreshing it was to hear the other side of the story. We had a long conversation about some of the history of the areas especially the Villages. As does happen some times after residents move into the Villages, after about a year they become unhappy about something they did not see during their sales visit when they bought their house. Most of the time it's politics. I have felt the wrath of some of the residents in the form of threats, nasty letters or "don't deliver that @$%^& paper here again", but they all agree that I will put everyone's opinion in print. As I see it, that's my job and your job is to read it.

This reader was complaining about the Villages collecting money for the Moffit Center. He did not see the reason to collect money from the residents and felt the residents were put upon because someone was always asking for more money. His quote was "It's all about money." This reader had a house in Spruce Creek also but had not mentioned anything about Spruce Creek. I'm sure they have there problems also.

I believe the Villages is one of the most exciting, beautiful places in the state for active seniors. If you are going to move somewhere to vegetate the Villages is not really the place to go. They have 100's of events daily. Just don't talk politics. Over the years I have been publisher I have received letters and calls from people who had been bullied, uninvited to community affairs and, well, you get the idea. Does the Villages have an exclusive on the political things? (Strong ideas we'll call it) The answer is no. Every gated community is the same about politics because the politicians use them for voting blocks, spreading rumors about their opponent, or promising something they never are going to do. I have had many letters from Marion County gated communities where residents were arguing about politics. If you live in a gated community? My message to you would be relax. You are there to have fun and retire.

In my early days, 9 years old, I wrote and presented a speech at a local Optimist Club and won. After that, I went to state three times in the next few years. The real treat was going to nationals in Cuba. I met Batesta and Castro was fighting in the hills. In Havana where I stayed, at the Hotel National there were machine guns set up behind sand bags and military police everywhere. As far as the eye could see there were sand bags and machine guns. Actually, the military Police saved me from being robbed the second night we were there. That is another story. Cuba had its own young speaker. I think by this time I was about fourteen. We were competing against some eighteen year competitors who very polished. You'll never guess what the subject of the speech was. "Freedom, our most precious heritage." In the audience sits a dictator listening to me give a speech about FREEDOM. I came in fourth, I never competed again because I had to get a serious job. Since then my oratory has gotten worse and worse. I'm nervous in front of some people and relaxed in front of others.

Where do we go from here with all this back and forth between the Republicans and the Democrats. I said many years ago if you read my column that a serious third party would emerge. The problems between the two parties have just made the Tea Party a serious party. All the budget cuts that they are working on should not have been there in the first place. If you can cut it then it should not have been presented. This thing about not drilling I don't understand. It's like they want us to be dependent on the oil producing countries.

If I were president? That's a joke. Come on, go along with me. If I were President.

First: I would allow drilling and make anyone who drills sell to us only for 40% over cost. Take it off the Stock Exchange so speculators can't bid on the supply and raise the price. Anything that would effect National Security and that drives the economy should not be listed on the Stock Exchange. Have two grades of gas, high test, regular and, of course, deisel. De-regulate the different grade for the different states. Today we have many different grades because different states have EPA regulations. If they insist on different gas let them refine it themselves and pay the difference. Right now start building federal refineries in strategic places that are easy to defend with low population. Build them across the country for easy distribution. Drill in Alaska and pipe it down to two of the new easy to access refineries. That will solve the oil problem. I listened to a documentary the other day about the war and they said they are charging residents and fighters 40 cents a gallon in one of the oil rich towns.

Second: I would lower the Corporate tax on the manufacturers of producta sold in the United States and charge import fees so that the products produced in the United States were cheaper. The Corporations would come back to the good ole USA. Give them a one year window to bring thier manufacturing efforts back into the country with tax incentives, after that offer nothing. Do not allow manufacturers that have one factory in this country and one in another country claim most of their profit was in the other country. Because right now they claim their profit is made by the factory outside the country. Allow foreign visitors to have businesses in this country if the money stays here in this country. Do not subsidize them! Anything imported is subject to import tax. The IRS can monitor the import, export business. We can control our economy.

Third: Every employee working in this country will have a work permit period! If companies are caught using illegals without a permit they face a $10,000 fine! Second offense fine $50,000 third offense put them in jail with the worker.

Fourth and final: Let the states run their own business. They need to pay their own bills and the federal government needs to stay out of their business and take care of National Security and the above problems only. Adopt the fair tax. No new laws, enforce the ones we have. Forget about lawsuits or passing laws where people are offended by the word God or any other word, put prayer back in school and if someone don't like it tell them to home school their children. Tell all foreign visitors to go by our laws or get the hell out! Oh well I'm not President so you will have to settle for second best. Ha Ha Ha!

THE OMBUDSMAN

The Ombudsman Program Withlacoochee area volunteers continue to advocate for residents who live in long-term care facilities. It is our pleasure to serve this population and assist them with any problems they may have. This month our council has had the opportunity to do several annual assessments at long-term care facilities. We announce our visits upon arrival, and spend time speaking with residents. It is a joy to spend quality time with each individual and give them an opportunity for their voices to be heard. To explain the process further, the assessment process reviews conditions in a facility from a resident's perspective, focusing on conditions that impact the health, safety, welfare and rights of residents with the purpose of noting possible areas of concern and making recommendations to enhance the quality of life for residents. This is why we volunteer! We have the opportunity every time we enter a long-term care facility to enhance the quality of life for residents! Florida law mandates that the administrative assessment shall not duplicate the efforts of agency surveys and inspections to the extent possible and reasonable. In order to focus on residents and prevent duplication to the extent possible, we interview a cross-section of residents, record the residents' comments anonymously, and bring these comments to the administrator's attention. Our assessment information is public record. Consumers can request this information when considering long-term care options for themselves or their loved ones. You can request this information by calling toll-free

1-888-831-0404 and speaking to your local ombudsman office.

We are looking for more volunteers to identify, investigate and resolve residents' concerns. Special training and certification is provided. We need you! If you are interested in becoming an ombudsman volunteer or would like more information about the program, please visit our website at www.ombudsman.myflorida.com or call 1-888-831-0404.

Friends of the Library

Starting off a busy month, the Friends of the Ocala Library will hold their quarterly book sale on Saturday, May 7, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Rooms B and C of the main library on Silver Springs Boulevard. Thousands of tenderly treated books will be on sale, hardbacks at 50 cents, and paperbacks at 25 cents. All proceeds of these sales go to the library for unbudgeted projects, including contributions to the popular children's programs. Come and browse, and help the Friends help your library.

On Sunday, May 22, at 2 p.m. in Room C of the main library, the Friends will hold a short annual business meeting before introducing the program speaker, photo-journalist Carlton Ward, an 8th generation Floridian, who will share some of the stunning photographs that illustrate his book, "Florida Cowboys: Keepers of the Last Frontier", and speak about preserving Florida's wilderness. Ward takes his audience on a visit to a Florida "Where sunburn is the result of honest hard work", a phrase aptly illustrated by his pictures of the Florida cowboys that most of us rarely see, or even knew anything about.

16. Why did Fox News get so popular so fast? Could it be the American people believe they are reporting the truth?

17. Why did the big drive time hosts become so popular? Are they reporting truth? Because they are reporting whatever the evidence takes them.

The President is supposed to be above all this and do what the people of America want, not cater to foreign countries. Now we learn that China has been stealing secrets from us. Prime and leading big businesses have been recruited through stolen information which moves their tax money out of this country. Is this an effort to keep us under their thumb financially, or ruin us financially?

The Obama tax cuts are a slight of hand. Two thirds of his proposed tax cuts will be taken care of by increased taxes. That's not a cut That's an tax increase.

I repeat, you can tax the rich until they are no longer rich. Then the description of rich will continue to drop until the middle class is no more. What then? We will look like Cuba, TOTAL GOVERNMENT CONTROL.

The young idealistic Republicans will do their best, but the American people need to help with their vote. If Obama gets re-elected, America as we know it will be no more.

You can't just give the masses money. You can give them opportunity. What they do with the opportunity is called "The American Dream!" When there is no more opportunity there is no more hope and with no more hope you have total Government control.

In Flanders Fields
John McCrae, 1915

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from falling hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

SIMPLE Spring Sweets

(Family Features) Cooking Channel and Univision star Ingrid Hoffmann, host of Simply Delicioso and Delicioso (on Telefutera / Univision) shares her ideas to liven up your springtime desserts! Ingrid suggests combining fresh, seasonal flavors with Eagle Brand(r) Sweetened Condensed Milk to ensure perfect homemade and easy desserts year-round. Serve up a sweet surprise with these delicious new recipes and baking tips from Ingrid Hoffmann. Ingrid Hoffmann's Spring Dessert Tips

-Homemade ice cream is easier than you think. Make Caribbean Pineapple Lime Ice Cream in three simple steps with Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk. Or create an artisan inspired ice cream flavor at home by combining spices like chipotle or cinnamon with lime zest, fresh or frozen blueberries or raspberries and add to your ice cream mixture.

-Dessert bars are a great solution for easy entertaining. Spice up any table by preparing Tropical Dessert Bars and then top with smooth and creamy Dulce de Leche, which can easily be made by heating Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk on the stovetop or in the oven.

Visit www.eaglebrand.com or www.marcaeeagle.com for more recipes and helpful tips from Ingrid Hoffmann.

Another big one! Where's it at - I can't see it! Ha Ha - a lot of fun was had by all. Grandmas, Wives, Fathers and Grandsons.

"It's a Bass!!" This lady caught a Bass, it was a little short on size. It was released back into the pond to grow bigger.

Senior Fishing Derby

Nine years ago I went to the Senior Fishing Day to take a picture. I was looking for a special shot. I found it, there was an elderly black man in a wheelchair fishing with a cane pole under an oak tree. His weathered face told me he had a life of working outside. This gentleman was from one of the senior assisted living homes, so he had a helper with him. I took his picture, he told me he thought that he would never get to fish again but here he was. An hour later I was talking to the coordinator Mary Filer and she mentioned that they had just lost their sponsor and the rest is history. We had so much fun that we decided to do it twice a year.

The 18th annual Senior Fishing Derby went off without a hitch. Of course it was because of the volunteers and the coordinators. Grace Huffman of the City Parks and Recreation and Diane Leaf of the Parks and Recreation. Supplying the food is Tom Loury of TomL Publishing / Seniors Voice of Ocala.

Special thanks to:

John Bennet/Clay Electric for cooking, supplying the cooker, helping to purchase the bait and bringing door prizes.

BJ Trophies, Floyd Hershberger Golden Flake, Phyllis

Florida Fish and Game Commission

TomL Publishing LLC Donated 12 restaurant Gift certificates and four fishing poles.

Thanks for helping to Carla Chindamo, Park Ranger and parks maintenance crew. Visiting was Jane Morley, thanks for the help Jane.

The daily covered the Senior Fishing Derby and for the 12th time they left my name out. That's OK I just gave them coverage.

Look for the next Senior Fishing Derby in the Ocala DownTown or the Seniors Voice of Ocala.

Nice Catfish caught - 14 1/2 inches. It was caught on a wiggler.

Here is a lady with her catch. As you can see by the amount of people lined up around the pond there was a good crowd. It was like that in any direction you looked.
