Record Tourism

Industry Leaders React to Record Tourism Announcement

Carol Dover, Member of the VISIT FLORIDA Board of Directors and President & CEO of the Florida Restaurant & Lodging Association said, "These record numbers indicate the hospitality and tourism industry in Florida is reaching grander levels of success under Governor Rick Scott's leadership. We are thrilled to see millions upon millions of visitors taking advantage of world-class hotels, restaurants and attractions here in the Sunshine State and we are excited to watch these outstanding statistics continue to multiply in 2014 and in turn spur economic growth."

Mark Wilson, President & CEO of the Florida Chamber of Commerce said, "Tourists have choices, and when they want to go to paradise, they're choosing Florida. Today's record breaking tourism numbers are further proof that Florida's global role as a top destination continues growing stronger, and as a result, Florida's families and small businesses are benefiting."

Rick McAllister, President & CEO of the Florida Retail Federation said, "Florida's retailers benefit from our state's status as the premier destination for visitors nationwide and internationally, and the strong growth of tourism helped retailers create 55,000 jobs last year. We congratulate Florida's leadership on the wise investment of resources in tourism marketing, which is clearly paying dividends for our state economy."

John Sebree, Senior Vice President of Public Policy for the Florida Association of Realtors said, "A record year in tourism certainly means more visitors to our theme parks and beautiful beaches, but tourism also goes hand in hand with the strength of our real estate market. Many of the state's domestic and international visitors decide to buy a Florida property and that, in turn, creates jobs." (Continued on Page 9)

Code enforcement does a good job but some times ya just need to cut people some slack. Dr. Ronald Corbett served in our military, was wounded several times, lost parts of his body, but yet he walks into a meeting on his own. I'm not going to attempt to tell you what artificial parts he has because he does not talk too much about it, but I know he has some titanium - I think to replace something in his neck and throat.

Corbett was very upset when our illustrious president said "you did not build that".

So Corbett decided to send a message, but he should have checked for code violation. Code enforcement showed up and said "take down the sign." They told him he could buy a permit that would only be good for three days. As you can see it is not in the way of people walking. Being a true patriot it's hard to understand, especially given the circumstances knowing that he built this business in spite of code enforcement and in spite of our president who has never served his country until he became president and look what a great job he's doing now.

I talked to the FairTax people who said the city and the county are not very tolerant when it comes to FairTax signs. The FairTax sign you see in this picture had to go also. It was in the planter and clearly not on city property. I think Ron Corbett earned special sign privileges. After all, the city and the county sits on this land we call a free country. Oops, did I say something that was not politically correct?

As the last week of pre-session committee meetings wrap up in Tallahassee, a spirit of optimism prevails. The opening day of the 2014 Legislative Session is on March 4th and we have much to celebrate. Unemployment numbers continue to improve, tourism numbers rise, home sales improve, property values are moving up, and state revenue forecasts improve. Modest economic growth is budding. It's a new day in Florida and we have much to be thankful for as we see fiscal soundness paying dividends of recovery from the long deep recession. Legislators look forward to helping the folks with some tax relief, starting with some roll back on motor vehicle fees. It feels like some restoration is well underway and it's a welcome transition from the recent sluggish economy. Thanks to all the Floridians who are hard at work and who have demonstrated a "never give up" conviction. It is also a delight to celebrate one of our great universities bringing home the national college football championship (Go Florida State Seminoles!) and our outstanding local athletes competing at the Winter Olympics. It is always tempting to wring our hands and complain about our current unmet challenges. But instead let's take a victory lap and give thanks for the persistent American Spirit in our people that seeks to preserve faith, family, freedom, and opportunity. It's a new day in North Central Florida and we are not done yet! Onward and upward, Dennis Baxley

Ocala Fire Rescue Hosts Irish Delegation

(OCALA, Fla.) February 19, 2014 – The city of Ocala and Newbridge, Ireland signed a Twinning agreement in 2009 and the friendship has grown every year since. The concept of Twinning cities promote the sharing of culture, education and economic opportunity. This year fourteen delegates from Newbridge have traveled to spend a week in Ocala.

A tour for the group was hosted today by Ocala Fire Rescue. The delegation learned about fire service practices in the United States, and a few brave willing visitors enjoyed the view of downtown Ocala from the top a fire department ladder truck.

"It is certainly wonderful to meet and learn about the commonalities of people in this world, especially from a beautiful country such as Ireland," stated Ocala Fire Chief Bradd Clark during a visit at the fire station.

CARING FOR YOUR EYES

By Thomas L. Croley, M.D.
Board Certified Ophthalmologist
Director of Central Florida Eye Institute
Lucentis New Treatment for Macular Degeneration

- People who smoke
- People with a family history of macular degeneration

Lucentis is an FDA approved drug treatment to block abnormal blood vessel growth (VEGF) and leakage. These abnormal blood vessels are very weak, they often grow and/or leak causing damage and resulting in vision loss. The medication is injected into the affected eye; it then spreads throughout the inside of the eye working to stop the VEGF. The eye is numbed prior to the injection and most patients tolerate the treatment without any significant discomfort. The overall result is a decrease in the formation of these weak blood vessels and therefore the stabilization of your vision.

You may not notice any immediate improvements in your sight. This does not mean that the treatment is not working. It is a gradual process that may improve or maintain your vision over time. For optimal results, the treatment will need to be performed about every 4 weeks and needs to be continued in order to stabilize your vision. The “wet form” of macular degeneration is a chronic disease and will require continued treatment just like high blood pressure or diabetes.

While people over the age of 50 are more likely to develop this disease, a small percentage of people under this age can also develop macular degeneration. It is important that macular degeneration be detected in the early stages. Most commonly it is diagnosed during a yearly eye examination. Sometimes specialized tests are required to determine the type of Macular Degeneration as well as the extent of existing damage. It is suggested that between annual routine eye examinations people take notice of their vision out of each eye. An amsler grid is given to patients who have been diagnosed with Macular Degeneration. Several times a week the patient should look at the grid, noting any changes in their vision. They are directed to contact their ophthalmologist immediately for an appointment if any changes are noticed.

There are two common types of macular degeneration:

- “Dry” macular degeneration (atrophic) is the most common and is caused by aging and thinning of tissues of the macula. Vision loss is usually gradual. Loss of vision may continue slowly, at times appearing stable for years.
- “Wet” macular degeneration accounts for 10% of all cases. It results from abnormal blood vessels that leak fluid or blood and blurred central vision. Vision loss may be rapid and severe. “Wet macular degeneration may sometimes be treated with laser to seal off the leaking areas so the disease does not progress resulting in further central vision loss. The laser does not restore vision already lost. Other treatments may be available for a few patients with specific forms of “wet” macular degeneration.

In the early stage, the condition may be hardly noticeable by the patient. Many times only one eye is affected. When the central vision is affected in both eyes, loss of central vision may be more noticeable. The symptoms of macular degeneration may be blurred words on a page, dark or empty areas in the central vision, or straight lines looking distorted.

Technology continues to advance quickly and thankfully new treatments are being developed. Dr. Croley may detect early stages of Macular Degeneration during a routine dilated examination and provide prompt, effective treatment. Therefore, annual eye examinations are vital to insure a lifetime of good, healthy vision. To schedule an appointment or for more information feel free to contact us at 352-237-8400 or 800-521-6028. ## PUBLISHER'S NOTES

This column is one person's opinion...MINE!

Illegal Immigrants - I think the strategy the Republicans have is to make them legal residents, which means they are legal to be here and work here as long as they pay taxes. But they are not citizens and don't have voting rights or any other federal benefits that citizens enjoy. Think about it, how are we going to deport millions of Mexicans? In my opinion it's not possible; we send them back and they are back across the border the next week. This way we document them, they get to work and we don't run short in the agriculture industry. If a law is broken, as a resident we can punish them or send them back.

Federal Benefit Package? What motive would Congress have to change the Social Security Checks to Federal Benefits Checks? They're getting ready to screw someone - namely the seniors! This way in a year, or in the near future, they can vote on cutting the Federal Benefit Package which will include all federal expenses and they won't be accused of robbing the Social Security fund. Mark my words it's coming. What makes the Social Security fund so tough is that citizens pay into it all their lives and the money is matched by the employer and it shows no interest. They claim that SS is under funded but the formula proves it's not. For instance . . . if you make $30K per year and 15% SS is taken out and matched by your employer and the money makes as low as 1% per year you would have way over a million dollars by retirement. If you did the same thing as a private retirement investment and made 3% per year interest you would clear more than $30k per in retirement benefits if you take only 3% per year.

I find it strange that the current administration says that Social Security is running out of money but I have never heard them say that welfare is running out of money.

I also heard an alarming rumor that the Health Care Act says at age 76 there are no benefits for cancer treatment. I will look into this further. I guess we are just supposed to die.

I heard the name Ed Mezvinsky used last month. He was a former Democrat congressman from 1973 to 1977. He helped decided the fate of Richard Nixon. He said Nixon was a crook and should be impeached. He was intertwined politically with the Clintons.

Mezvinsky had an affair with news reporter Marjorie Sue Margolies and later married her. In 1993, Marjorie Mezvinsky, then a freshman Democrat in Congress, helped pass President Bill Clinton's controversial tax package.

In 2001, Ed Mezvinsky was indicted and pleaded guilty to 31 counts of bank fraud, mail fraud, and wire fraud. He embezzled more than $10 million dollars from people.

He was found guilty and served five years and is now on probation.

Ed Mezvinsky is Chelsea Clinton's father-in law.

On a local level, I had a reader ask if I would run a story or an ad that says a garage cheated him and name the garage. Obviously I can't, but I have to admit I'm tempted. When you take your car or anything that needs repair some place, get a written quote and make them stick to it. If you accuse someone of cheating you after the fact most of the time you won't win and it could cost you in legal fees and for defamation of character. Most garages are honest, but if you let them upsell you "that's your fault not theirs"! If you are going to let a garage take your engine out and take the engine apart to find out what is wrong with it, you have no choice but to trust in your mechanic. Shame on you if you're going to someone you don't trust or don't know.

UNITED NATIONS ARMS TREATY

A 53 to 46 vote stopped us from being part of the United Nations Arms Treaty. The current administration has championed the treaty but did not have the votes. If passed it would affect private gun owners in the US, it would also put a Global ban on import or export of small arms. The international deal would implement a gun registration of all guns and ammunition in the US.

This was won by only seven votes, Senator Nelson from Florida voted for it. When we get closer to the election I will print all the names of the senators that voted for it. These names are in the news every night.

The older I get the more gullible I get. A friend ran for a political office, during the election I observed a change in his thought process and after elected I was the most disappointed person in the world. I learned an important lesson and will never do it again! When people come complaining to him he said "I did not know anything about that" when I had talked to him about the issue just days before. Things that were not OK before are suddenly OK now! Oh God help him and me! I don't know if we will ever be friends again but my skin is a lot thicker now. I wish him well!

You can't choose where you came from, but you can choose where you're going and who is going with you! I don't know who said that, I guess me.

THE MARION COUNTY SHERIFF

Bryan Blalock, 25, was arrested for aggravated child abuse. This case started on Friday, January 3, 2014. The Marion County Sheriff's Office responded to Ocala Regional Medical Center in reference to a 2-year-old child who had severe head trauma. The mother's boyfriend, Bryan Blalock, stated that the child had fallen in the bathtub; however, doctors knew the injuries were not consistent with falling in a tub. Detectives with the Special Investigations Unit interviewed Blalock on January 8, when he admitted to violently shaking the child several times out of anger, until the victim passed out. The child is now listed in critical condition at Shands Hospital.

On Friday, January 10, 2014, the Marion County Sheriff's Office charged Dylan Martin with six counts of arson to vehicles, which included 3 patrol cars. The first occurred at 10807 SW 57 Terrace Road on September 21, 2013, to a 2001 Honda that was parked in a driveway. Three other vehicle fires occurred in the same community under the same circumstances on September 29, October 7 and October 13, 2013, two cars being law enforcement vehicles. On October 20, 2013, an officer was on stakeout in the same community where he observed a white male subject standing by a patrol vehicle pouring something under the hood below the windshield wipers on the driver's side. He gave chase but lost the subject. The liquid turned out to be a flammable accelerant. Several calls were received with information that indicated Dylan Martin was responsible for these arson cases. They gave details that Martin had shared with them about how he set the fires and ran from law enforcement officers. Dylan is a 21-year-old who is now facing more than a dozen charges and his bond amount is nearly $100,000.

On 01-23-14, the Marion County Jail underwent an inspection by the Florida Model Jail Standards Review Team and received a 100% compliance rating for mandatory and non-mandatory standards. The Review Team, consisting of members from Alachua, Lake, Putnam, Citrus and Seminole Counties, examined Inmate Housing, Food Services, the Medical Facility, Security and Control, Sanitation, Construction Standards and Policies/Procedures. During the exit interview with team members, each inspector was highly complimentary on the cleanliness of the facility, the completeness of documentation and the professionalism displayed by all Corrections personnel. Sheriff Blair and all of the employees at the Marion County Sheriff's Office are very proud of the outcome of this Regional Peer Inspection. We look forward to continuing in our efforts to serve our community by providing a safe, secure and frugal correctional facility.

Louie Malone McGowin, 55, of Ocala has been charged with one count of grand theft from a person 65 years old or older. According to the arrest affidavit, McGowin used the threat of arrest to deprive the victim of at least $50,000. McGowin is not a member of any law enforcement agency. Detectives learned that McGowin claimed to have a friend in law enforcement and that the friend would arrest the victim and her son, if the victim didn't give McGowin money. The 70-year-old victim told detectives McGowin received several vehicles and was provided with large amounts of cash. During the investigation, it was discovered McGowin did not have a friend in law enforcement. Plus, McGowin is accused of using the victim's bank card. Also, detectives learned that McGowin fled to Indiana. Members of the Porter County Sheriff's Office were contacted in Harborview, Indiana. That agency found McGowin and placed him under arrest in reference to having an outstanding warrant in Marion County. McGowin is awaiting extradition to the Marion County Jail.

ONE PERSON'S OPINION
LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:
SWEDEN!!
You heard right I said Sweden, the POSTER CHILD of SOCIALIZED MEDICINE.
For decades I had to listen to how wonderful things were in SWEDEN. Notice the name. Well yesterday, it happened. I read the following news: Swedes are FLOCKING to buy private medical coverage. The wait for care is soooo bad that anyone who can afford it is buying private policies. WHY??? Why then are we about to go down this same dumb road. Are we that dense? Stupid? Why would we do such a foolish thing to ourselves? Isn't Sweden enough of a lesson in failure? Why would we strive for failure? We can do it better at socialized medicine? I DO NOT THINK SO. It does not work, face reality.

Where else has it worked? England, Canada, France, Cuba? Name one!!!! Make your case. Convince me. I am not buying it. Will it take your own personal denial of care to convince you of the fallacy of socialized medicine. TOOO late I already know people who are being denied, and some who have passed away. Mammograms, and pap smears are now once every 2 years, not yearly. It begins. Inch by inch.
My strategy! Stay healthy. So far, so go. Good luck to you. Some drug addict, or obese person, or convict will probably get your health dollars. Glad you are so magnanimous.
Keep up the din for SOCIALIZED medicine. OBAMACARE looks like socialized something to me.

Dear Editor,
If you have to show identification to board a plane, cash a check, buy liquor, get a library card, see a doctor, use a credit card, etc., why don't you have to show identification to vote?
Why has Obama pledged American assistance to double electricity access in sub-Saharan Africa at a cost of 7 billion dollars when that money could be used to upgrade electrical service right in the U.S.? (Article in Daily Sun 7/1/13)
Why is the Pentagon spending more than three-quarters of a billion dollars to buy

Russian-made helicopters for Afghan aviation unit troops who don't know how to operate or maintain them? (Article in Daily Sun 6-30-13) What happened to "Made in the U.S.A" and spending that money on our troops?
Why are American companies opening more factories in Mexico, Canada and other nearby countries bringing new jobs to those countries when jobs are desperately needed right here? (Article in Daily Sun 12/10/13)
Why is American Airlines buying 90 new regional jets from Brazil's Embraer S.A. and Canada's Bombardier Inc. and not from an American Company?
WHY?

Celebrate Volunteers

April 6-13, 2014 / National Volunteer Week

National Volunteer Week is a time to celebrate people doing extraordinary things through service. Established in 1974, National Volunteer Week focuses national attention on the impact and power of volunteerism and service as an integral aspect of our civic leadership. The week draws the support and endorsement of the president and Congress, governors, mayors and municipal leaders, as well as corporate and community groups across the country.

Through programs such as the President's Volunteer Service Award, Daily Point of Light Award and the Extra Mile – Points of Light Volunteer Pathway, we recognize individuals, families, nonprofit organizations and government entities and the tremendous impact they are making on our country's most critical challenges year-round.

Marion County is blessed with numerous nonprofit agencies and hundreds of volunteers. Our schools, hospitals and churches depend on selfless folks who are willing to donate time and talent.

While volunteers are not seeking recognition, setting aside one week each year to celebrate their generous and dedicated lives expresses not only our gratitude, but also enables us to recognize that we truly depend on their service. We would be remiss if we did not mention that the majority of our volunteers are senior citizens.

The next time you are at the library, thank the volunteer who is shelving books. Take a moment to acknowledge volunteers at the hospital, our county and city parks, at our schools, special events and anywhere and everywhere volunteers are impacting your life and our community.

women dressed the part and cooked over a wood campfire. You could sample biscuits made over the open fire, fresh made kettle corn or sample fresh made butter right out of the butter churn.

Thousands of people attended Saturday and Sunday. The park rangers and the volunteers called the FORS kept things flowing. There was plenty of parking and looking at the automobile tags you could see there were people from all over the United States. Many attendees were local, some from the Villages and Ocala.

Mark your calendar for next year, start looking for the advertising around the end of February.

Record Tourism

ates an even greater number of tourists and jobs. We have heard that the purchase of a home by someone outside Florida can create an additional 25 round trip flights per year and countless additional hotel nights for family and friends who then become tourists themselves to our beautiful state.”

Bill Lupfer, VISIT FLORIDA Chair of Public Affairs and President & CEO of the Florida Attractions Association said, “Florida is the finest tourism destination in the world, and three record-breaking years for the industry have solidified our position as the lifeblood of the state’s economy. We applaud Governor Scott’s support of the state’s tourism industry and look forward to expanding job opportunities for Floridians in 2014.”

Bill Talbert, Member of the VISIT FLORIDA Board of Directors Executive Committee and President & CEO of the Greater Miami Convention & Visitors Bureau said, “As a founding partner of VISIT FLORIDA, we are thrilled with the tourism records being set by the State of Florida. Tourism is Miami’s #1 industry contributing to the economic well-being of the community with record tourism and jobs. We look forward to expanding our partnership with VISIT FLORIDA to ensure the continued growth at record levels of our tourism industry.”

Virginia Haley, Member of the VISIT FLORIDA Visitor Services Committee and President of Visit Sarasota County said, “These numbers validate the public private partnership model of VISIT FLORIDA and the success that comes to the state’s economy when we all join together to promote Florida, the best tourism destination in the world.”

FROM THE GOVERNOR'S DESK

From the Governor:

I am deeply saddened by the loss of Deputy Jonathan Scott Pine of the Orange County Sheriff's Office. Deputy Pine lost his life on Tuesday, February 11, 2014, when he was fatally shot while responding to a burglary. The death of Deputy Pine is a solemn reminder of the risks that law enforcement officers across Florida take to ensure the safety of all Florida citizens. In honor of Deputy Pine, I hereby direct the flags of the United States and the State of Florida to be flown at half-staff at all local and state buildings, installations, and grounds throughout Orange County, Florida, and the municipalities within, from sunrise to sunset on Saturday, February 15, 2014.

GOV. SCOTT: FLORIDA JOB DEMAND AT ALL-TIME HIGH

There are more than 282,000 openings statewide; and January online job vacancies increase by 5.1 percent over the year

TALLAHASSEE— Today, Governor Rick Scott announced that according to Help Wanted OnLine, the number of available job openings in Florida increased in January 2014 compared to the previous January by 13,725, or 5.1 percent, for a total of 282,056 openings (seasonally adjusted). This is an all-time high in the data series, which began in May 2005, and the third consecutive month of record growth for job openings. Job postings in Florida also increased over the month compared to December 2013 by 1,588 openings or 0.6 percent.

Governor Rick Scott said, "This is the third consecutive month that the number of online job openings has reached an all-time high. The historic increase in openings is further proof that the steps we are taking to create jobs and opportunities for Florida families are working. Florida has added 462,100 private sector jobs since December 2010, and we won't stop until every Florida family has the opportunity to achieve their version of the American Dream."

Florida's labor demand has increased by 129,405 openings, or 84.8 percent, since April 2009, when the number of openings was the lowest, with only 152,651 openings.

According to the Help Wanted OnLine data series, online job demand was highest in the large metro cities, led by Miami, Orlando, Tampa, Jacksonville, and Ft. Lauderdale. Among cities with the most openings, the highest percentage gain over the year was Ft. Myers, with 28.4 percent growth.

Florida Department of Economic Opportunity Executive Director Jesse Panuccio said, "Another record month for job demand shows that sound economic policy in Florida is making a difference. Floridians now have more opportunities to find the jobs that will provide for their families and their future."

Major occupational groups with the most online ads in January were sales and related occupations, healthcare practitioners and technical occupations, office and administrative support occupations, and management occupations. The average annual salary of the top 20 occupations in demand in January was just under $59,000.00.

Governor Rick Scott Encourages Students to Apply for the Gubernatorial Fellows Program

Tallahassee, Fla. – Governor Rick Scott is encouraging college and university students to apply for the 2014-2015 Gubernatorial Fellows Program. Participation in the program provides Florida students with firsthand, high-level experience and insight into how state government operates. Established in 2004, and endowed by the Hoffman Foundation in 2005, the program gives Florida college and university students the unique opportunity to work alongside state government's top staff for two semesters.

Governor Scott said, "The Gubernatorial Fellows Program provides an invaluable opportunity for Florida's college and university students to receive advanced, on-the-job training. I am committed to creating an opportunity economy in Florida that prepares every student for success in college and career. I encourage students interested in public service and leadership to apply to be a part of this program and learn the skills needed to be ready for the workforce."

Gubernatorial Fellows are assigned to the Executive Office of the Governor and the Governor's agencies, based on their major or area of concentration. Fellows work a minimum of 20 hours per week and are paid for their time on the job. Fellows will also receive tuition waivers from their college or university to cover the cost of their tuition as they continue their studies throughout the program year.

Fellows participate in a weekly lecture series, where they meet face-to-face with prominent leaders, including Governor Scott, Lieutenant Governor Lopez-Cantera, Cabinet officers, agency heads and other top government officials. Fellows also participate in policy study trips throughout Florida and in Washington, D.C. These trips are designed to broaden the Fellows' exposure to state government and enhance the experience of all participants.

To be eligible for a Gubernatorial Fellowship, candidates should be enrolled at a Florida college or university, as a rising junior or senior, or a graduate student. Applicants should exhibit strong leadership, written and oral communication skills, community activism and a desire to serve the people of Florida. Approximately 12 students from around the state will be selected based on a competitive application process.

Students can visit www.FloridaFellows.com to learn about the expectations and requirements of the program, as well as read testimonials from alumni. Interested students must apply online, and the site includes complete information about the recruitment process.

Applications are due by Monday, March 10, 2014. The Fellowship will follow the university calendar starting in August 2014 and end in May 2015. The Governor's screening and selection committee will announce the program participants in May 2014.

For more information on the Gubernatorial Fellows Program, please visit www.FloridaFellows.com.
